ABSTRACT

THE METHODOLOGY OF IBN HAJAR AL-ASKALANI OF (773-854.A.H\1371-1448.A.C) IN HIS BOOK-AL-DURAR AL-KAMENA-FI- A'YAN AL-MEA AL-THAMENA

Ibn Hajar Al-Askalani is a great historian in the field of biographies. The study attempts to reveal his method in writing his book Al-Durar Al- Kamena Fi A'yan Al-Mea Al-Thamena. An investigation of biographies in his book has revealed that Ibn Hajar Al-Askalani possessed a certain concept during Social Elite in the creation of history.

The study constitutes four chapters. The first chapter deals with the Age of Ibn Hajar Al-Askalani during Mamluks period in addition to his biography.

Chapter two includes the concept of history as shown by the role of Social Elite. Here, discrepancies with previous works dealing with biographies of eminent men have been stressed. Light has been thrown on the basis on which the eminent persons had built their social, political and cultural position illustrating the range of their influence on the society.

Chapter three includes information of Ibn Hajar's sources focusing attention on the method he used in quoting from his predecessors and contemporaries. The impact of verbal quotations and eye – witness reporting have been examined.

Chapter four tackles the form and content of Ibn Hajar's biographies. Size of the obituary has been taken into account. His way in presenting the biographies and motives in his inclusion of marginal ones have also been focused on. As for the content, the study examines the major elements of biographies, starting with the name of the eminent personality and ending with his death.
