Abstract

Al- Kufa is considered one of the cities that the Arabs had established for military purposes. But it had developed until it became one of the most important and scientific cities. It attracted the attention of different kinds of people who visited it from all walks of life including some of the prophet's [God's blessings be on him] companions.

They took part in spreading science and knowledge which led to creating a culture and civilization in Kufa at that time. As a result, various religious and worldly (secular) studies appeared such as Quranic studies, Hadith studies, Arabic phonology, poetry and history etc...

Those studies were later developed and Kufa became one of the most important scientific and literary centers in the Islamic world.
