Abstract

(The Questioner's Resources in the Cases of Issues): It is one of the books of Imam Muhammad bin Hamza Al-Rumi Al-Hanafi Jarrah Zadeh (died: after 1012 AH) - may Allah have mercy on him-. Al-Farghani Al-Hanafi (died: 592 AH) - may Allah have mercy on him -. It is in three volumes, and it is one of the important books in Hanafi jurisprudence.

This book was characterized by explaining the views of the imams (Imam Abu Hanifa, Muhammad, Abu Yusuf, Zufar and others - may Allah have mercy on them -) and did not stop at the sayings of the scholars of his doctrine, and this is the characteristic of the scholar who is versed in his expansion of the quarry, and what makes the reader wide in knowledge and knowledge of the nature of the issue that is inferred On it, then in some issues, the majority of his madhhab (the Hanafi madhhab) is more likely. This letter came in one volume containing (168) plates, and my share of it is 28 plates from the beginning of the manuscript to the Book of Manumission.
