Introduction :

Praise be to God, who chose from among His servants men who advocated this religion, protected them with His care and supported them with the light of His law, so they adhered to this light and were for the servants of God as guides: And prayers and peace be upon our Prophet Muhammad, the leader of all creation, and his family and companions who sacrificed their lives for the love of this religion.

And yet:

It is from the Sunnah of God in His creation that among them there should be a guide, a masculine, a messenger and a bearer of good news, and you will not find the Sunnah of God Almighty in this matter to be altered or transformed. Until God wills, and that nation is represented by agents and preachers with wisdom and good advice. They are the heirs of the prophets whom we imitate, so they are imitated by their deeds and we imitate their morals. An educator for a sheikh and scholar whose stature emerged and his knowledge and his destiny spread among the people of knowledge and among the Muslims in general in the city of scholars and preachers, the city of Mosul and its people are the people of religion, morals, goodness and faith, which was famous for the scholars and prophets. The city of Mosul, including the Mosque of Haj Abdul Qadir Al Zakaria in the Darkazliya area, the Al-Rahma Mosque in the Sukar neighborhood, and the Rawda Muhammadiyah Mosque in the Al-Rafaq neighborhood, as reported by many young people in the city of Mosul. The first flood shelter in its center in the locality of the Prophet Zarzis, and he played a major role in educating the Muslim youth and urging them to uprightness and adherence to morals through his pulpit sermons, which present his idea of the subject of the sermon in a rational way and then support it with what nourishes the soul from the biography of our Prophet (PBUH) and the stories of the prophets, peace be upon them, and the stories A reality that occurred in our society, so the idea becomes entrenched in the minds of the listeners and then reflects on their behavior in their daily lives. The human being is in society, so this thesis, marked with (the educational curriculum of Sheikh Dr. Faydi Al-Faydi) came to show the educational curriculum of Sheikh Faydi and for the nation to follow it in every time and place.
